

LOCAL NEWS.

THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 3

Persons leaving the city can have the Gazette mailed to any address, postage prepaid, for any length of time, at the rate of fifty cents per month.

TO SUBSCRIBERS.—Subscribers will please bear in mind that the carriers are not allowed to collect for the GAZETTE.

For this section fair, warmer weather, southerly winds.

CITY POLITICAL NOTES.—The city democratic committee held a meeting last night to make preparations for a thorough organization for the campaign. A number of plans were suggested and it was determined to make an active canvass. Besides the committee a number of prominent democrats were present and gave their views concerning the work. The committee adjourned till Monday night, when they will meet in the Market building. All democrats are invited to be present and take part in the proceedings.

Mr. L. W. Corbet, the new chairman of the city republican committee, went to Petersburg to-day to ascertain what assistance would be rendered Alexandria by the republican State committee during the campaign; i. e., how much money will be furnished him to conduct the canvass.

A number of young republicans held an informal carter meeting last night and agreed that unless certain offices now held by democrats were soon given them they would vote the democratic ticket at the next election. They also agreed among themselves that they were the proper persons to fill the various offices.

POLICE REPORT.—Last night was clear and cool with two prisoners at the station house.

The Mayor this morning disposed of the following cases:

Wm. Sutton, colored, arrested by officers Davis and Grady for a felonious assault on Richard Ward, also colored, was committed to jail for further examination.

Norman Williams, colored, arrested by officer Sherwood for an assault on Thomas Lewis, also colored, was fined $2.

A resident of the Third ward, charged with shooting in the city limits, was fined $1.00.

Jas. Lewis, colored, arrested for disorderly conduct, was fined $1.

Jas. Thornton, arrested for disorderly conduct, was fined $1.50.

VERDICT.—In the Circuit Court of Orange yesterday Mr. George Washington, jr., obtained a verdict of $8,000 in his suit against the R & D R. R. for injuries sustained by reason of a collision between two trains on the Midland road, near Orange C. H., in August, 1887. Mr. Washington was represented by Messrs. G. A. Mushbach and J. K. M. Norton, of this city, while Gen. W. H. Payne and Mr. J. G. Williams appeared for the railroad. A motion for a new trial was overruled and a stay of proceedings of 90 days was allowed in order to take an appeal. It will be remembered that Mr. Washington first sued the Midland road and obtained a verdict in this city last year for $10,000. He can now decide which of the two verdicts to accept.

TEMPERANCE DEMONSTRATIONS.—Colonel Geo. W. Carter, who is lecturing under the auspices of the Good Templars of this section is greeted with crowded houses at each appointment. He has spoken at Leesville, Vienna, Fairfax C. H., Oakton, Fairfax Station, Falls Church, and Walker Chapel with great acceptance. Last night at Walker Chapel there was a rousing meeting and four additions to the lodge. To-night he speaks at Langley and to-morrow night at Arlington. He will lecture in this city next Sunday afternoon and on Monday and Tuesday nights. Col. Carter is an orator and all should hear him regardless of their views on the temperance question.

PERSONAL.—Judge Keith is holding a term of the Circuit Court of Clarke, at Berryville, for Judge Turner of that circuit, who is still too sick to resume his duties.

Mrs. Annie L. Alexander and daughters, Annie and Bessie, left last evening for Pittsburg, where they will in future reside.

Mrs. R. W. Wheat has returned from Upperville, where she has been spending the summer.

The Rev. John J. Lloyd, formerly of this city, has been invited to become assistant to the Rev. J. S. Hancock, D. D., at Christ Episcopal church, Charlottesville.

ACQUITTED.—In the U. S. Court to-day the jury in the case of Charles Hill, alias Nelson, colored, indicted for the murder of Sarah J. Mason on the Arlington reservation in May last, returned a verdict of not guilty without leaving the box and the prisoner was discharged. The evidence went to show that on the day of the killing the woman was at Hill's house helping his wife to wash, when a pistol which Hill had in his hand accidentally exploded, the ball taking effect in the body of Sarah Mason, from the effects of which she died in a few days. Hill was defended by Mr. Edmund Burke.

OLD DOMINION COMMANDERY.—The Sir Knights of this command will assemble at their asyllum Tuesday morning at 7:15 o'clock, in full dress, and march from there to the Fayette street depot, taking the 8 o'clock train for Washington, where they will take part in the grand parade of the order that morning. The members of the command residing on the Masses branch of the R & D R. R. will arrive in this city Monday night, while those residing on the W. & O. and the main line of the Midland road, will join the command at the depot, in Washington.

U. S. DISTRICT COURT.—Judge R. W. Hughes presiding—U. S. vs. Chas. Hill alias Nelson, indicted for the murder of Sarah J. Mason on the Arlington reservation; jury and verdict of not guilty and prisoner discharged.

The admiralty cause of Aitcheson Bros. vs. Endless Chain Dredge was set for trial to-morrow.

The petit jury was discharged.

Court will probably adjourn for the term to-morrow.

Mr. R. T. Lucas, auctioneer and agent for the owners of the property, sold to-day, at public auction, all the property of the Arlington Brick Machine Company, located at the outlet lock of the Alexandria Canal, upon the Potomac river, together with the lease of the ground (which is the property of the city) to the Excelsior Brick Company for $1,500 cash.

THE OPERA HOUSE.—The Albany Evening Post says of "May Blossom": "The play to be given here Monday night, 'May Blossom' is a drama of rare excellence. It is an American play well supplied with American incidents and characters, and the company rendering the several parts are all good."

APPOINTMENT CORRECTED.—Mr. Jos. G. Lash to-day received a letter from Internal Revenue Collector McGill informing him that the ambassa appointment he recently received was to succeed Col. Edmund Berkeley as gauger in this city. Mr. Lash will assume the duties of the office in a few days.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Decorations for the Knights Templar conclave have begun in Washington.

The regular monthly meeting of the City School Board will be held to-night.

There was quite a heavy but not a killing frost in this city and vicinity this morning.

A marriage license was issued in Washington yesterday to Frank Plummer, of Charleston, S. C., and Katie Cook, of Fairfax county.

Owing to sickness in the family of Mrs. Baillinger, the meeting of the Woodlawn Farmers' Club will be held next Saturday at the house of Mr. J. W. Roberts.

Capt. McKinney and Mr. Pollard will spend the night near Hamilton after the Leesburg appointment on the 9th, and will probably make speeches there also.

Capt. F. M. Phillips, of the steamer John W. Thompson, has resigned his position and is now considering an offer from a New York company to take charge of one of their boats at a salary of $100 per month.

The alarm of fire shortly before 10 o'clock last night was caused by a slight fire in the house on the corner of Royal and Gibson streets, occupied by a colored family. No damage was done and the engine did not go into service.

The Washington Capital says: "Recently the Alexandria authorities raided the policy shops in that city and broke up the flourishing business. They removed to this city and have since carried on operations here on an extensive scale."

Mr. M. B. Harlow, secretary of the Mount Vernon Avenue Association, went to Washington yesterday to look after the interest of that association. He talked to a number of prominent men and was much encouraged by what they told him of the prospects of building the great highway.

The Columbia Steam Fire Engine Company held their monthly meeting last night, transacted some routine business and elected two new members. Two applications for memberships were also received.

It was the crop of wheat and not the barn of Mr. Wm. Beverly, of Fauquier county, that was burned yesterday. The fire caught from the engine which was running the threshing machine.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of T. W. Rose & Co., dealers in wood and coal. This new firm will endeavor, by strict attention to business, to secure a share of public patronage.

A little colored girl named Williams, who lives west of the old Virginia House, was badly burned this morning by the upsetting of a kettle of hot water that she knocked from the stove.

The Alexandria Real Estate Company has sold to Mr. Wm. Darley a lot on the northeast corner of Columbus and Pendleton streets, fronting forty feet on Columbus, for $600.

Mr. H. Strauss has just received a large and handsome stock of fall and winter clothing, which he is now opening and will have for exhibition to customers by to-morrow.

With the nineteenth century dawned the era of wonders. It has also proven an era of surprises—for notwithstanding its giant strides toward unusual knowledge, we are told that there are still in sequestered places a few citizens who haven't heard of Salvation Oil.
